

Batch file can kill explorer running on background and start new instance

Sometimes my explorer does not respond very long time, and windows gives me an alert - "Not responding".

What I usually do is killing explorer instances and starting new one - it solves my pain points in shortly.

```
taskkill /f /im explorer.exe explorer.exe
```